

I wish to comment on the LPFM issue. I listen to KLOVE through a local translator. This station is very important to me for the music that I like and I do not have to listen to all the ads. This station serves a vital part of our community.